REVIEW

Starting with the 2020 Côtes Du Rhône, this juicy, medium to full-bodied, straight-up delicious beauty is loaded with character, offering ripe, black and blue fruits, notes of peppery garrigue, medium to full body, and a great finish. Côtes Du Rhône doesn't get much better, and it's ideal for enjoying over the coming 3-5 years.

REVIEW

A selection coming from higher elevation sites and a blend of 70% Grenache, 20% Syrah, and the rest Carignan, the 2020 Rasteau Terre Des Bertrand has a soft, supple, fruit-loaded profile as well as outstanding notes of raspberry fruit, peppery garrigue, and violets. It's balanced, has silky tannins, and is another impressive wine from this noteworthy estate.
